

THE ECONOMIC TIMES

NEW DELHI, SATURDAY, 9 MAY 2020

■ Employers Want Min to Ask Workers to Join Back

NEW DELHI A dozen employers' associations, including CII, have asked the labour ministry to issue a circular directing workers to join back work in the absence of which they would be liable for punishment as industry looks to restart operations with relaxation in lockdown. In a meeting with labour minister Santosh Gangwar, employer associations pitched for relaxation in the Industrial Disputes Act. The government has allowed opening up of industrial activity in a staggered way.